

Discovery Session with Linda Anderson

I'm an EFT Tapping Coach and Mindset Magician and I teach you how to overcome your fears around speaking, marketing and sales so you can present your programmes and services with confidence, get your gifts out into the world and build a thriving business doing what you love.

Benefits of a free Discovery Session

In this valuable session I will:

- Teach you a simple process you can use discreetly to quell your nerves in any situation
- Lead you through an exercise to bring your inner gremlins out of hiding and give you a clear overview of precisely what's getting in your way and causing you to feel nervous on stage
- Help you develop a plan to get the gremlins on board as your allies, so you can feel confident and actually have fun delivering your presentations

How to claim your session

Click on the link below and complete the simple questionnaire and on receipt I'll send you a link to my online calendar where you can book a slot:
